5506 Jim Ownby Tribute Bear
15"/38cm
(fully jointed in Alpaca) © Peggy Maxwell 1989

Peggy Maxwell

Peggy Maxwell who succeeded the late Jim Ownby as Chairman of Good Bears of the World designed this bear as a tribute to Jim. Jim founded Good Bears of the World in the U.S.A. He devoted his life to GBW and its work of giving bears to under-privileged children in hospitals. Peggy's Tribute Bear has a certain endearing resemblance to Jim Ownby.

5511 Maybe Bear
15"/38cm
(fully jointed in Mohair with Yes/No Mechanism)
© Carol-Lynn Rössel Waugh 1989

Carol-Lynn Rössel Waugh

Carol-Lynn Rössel Waugh is the prolific artist, writer and bear fancier who created the famous bears Yetta and Eric-Jon for our Celebrity Collection. Carol-Lynn is an art historian by training. She is the author of several books and many magazine articles on dolls and teddy bears. When Carol-Lynn agreed to design this bear using the Yes/No mechanism she said 'yes' and her bear said 'maybe'.

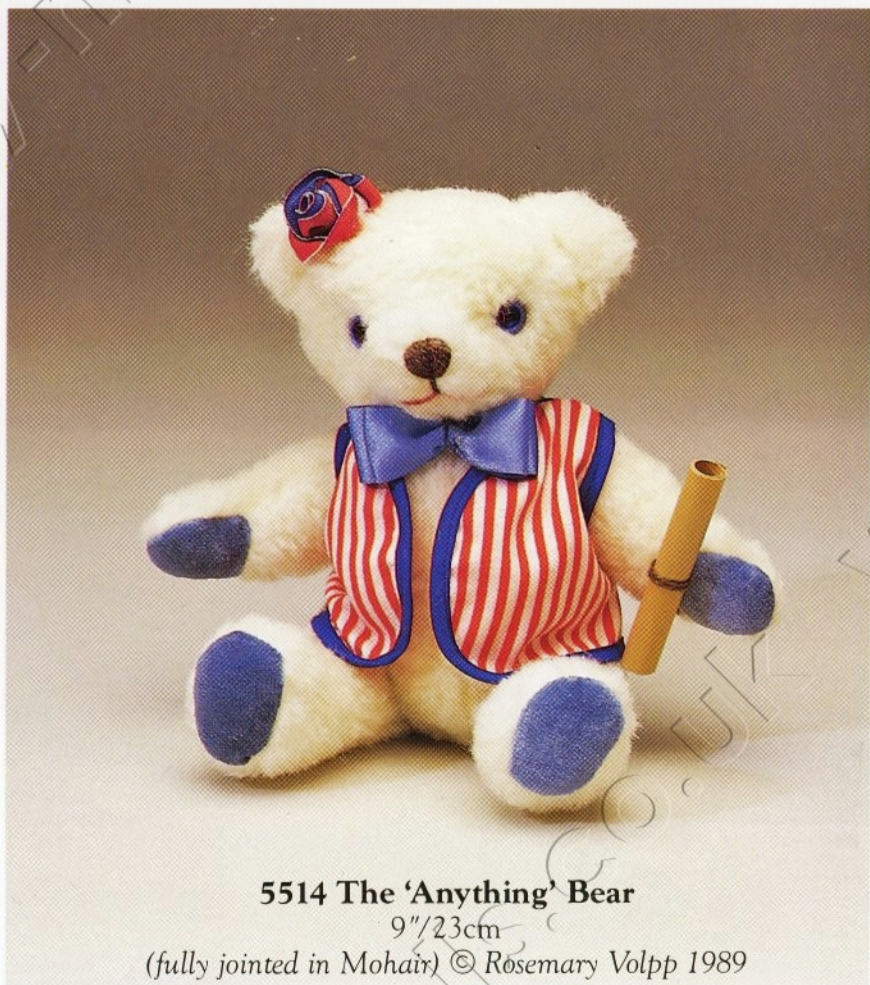

5513 Hedda Hair Bear
16"/40cm
(fully jointed in Mohair) © Lilian Rohaly 1989

Lilian Rohaly

Lilian Rohaly is a real character in the bear world. On both sides of the Atlantic we have enjoyed her famous hat which is festooned with net, feathers and plush animals. Hedda Hair Bear, a hopeless gossip, wears a replica of the famous Lilian Rohaly hat, similarly festooned with little animals.

5514 The 'Anything' Bear
9"/23cm
(fully jointed in Mohair) © Rosemary Volpp 1989

Rosemary Volpp

Rosemary Volpp and her husband Paul are regular contributors to Teddy Bear & Friends magazine, and their book, 'A Beary Merry Christmas' illustrates their incredible bear collection. Rosemary's 'Anything Bear' is dedicated to her 5 year old grandson Jess who wants to be an 'Anything Man' when he grows up. The bear's scroll relates this touching story.

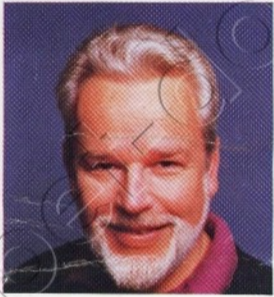

Gyles Brandreth and his Gyles Bear

5512 Sir Freddie Farthing

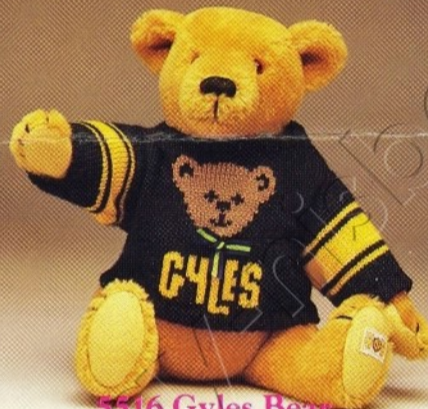

16"/40cm

(fully jointed in Mohair) © Ted Menten, 1989

Ted Menten

Ted Menten is versatility personified. His career has included cartoon drawing, package design, toy designing, writing, publishing and most recently bear artistry. Ted first published The Teddy Bear Lovers Catalogue in 1983. He then created Hug, and in 1988 he was the author, photographer and designer of Teddy's Bearzaar.

5516 Gyles Bear

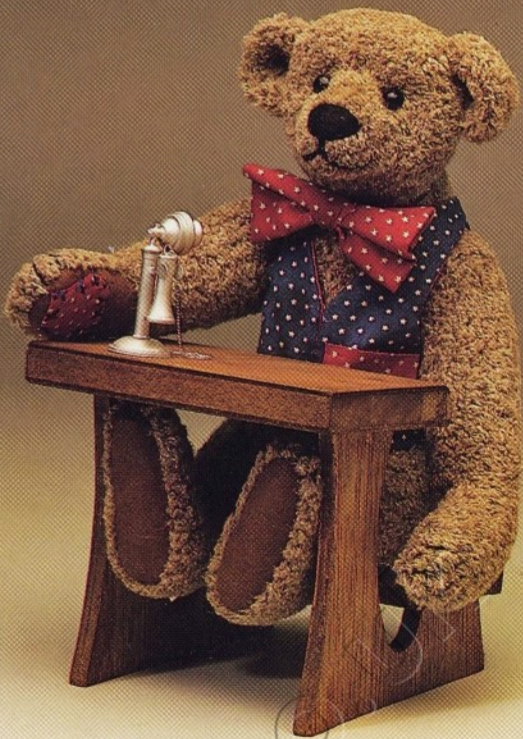

15"/38cm

(fully jointed with knitted sweater)

© Gyles Brandreth 1989

Television star Gyles Brandreth who appears regularly on TVAM and Countdown is well known for his colourful jumpers. Now there is a distinctive new Nisbet bear who has a similar penchant for knitwear. His name – Gyles Bear of course.

Gyles and his wife Michele are co-founders of The Teddy Bear Museum in Stratford (where Delicatessen now lives with hundreds of other bears). If only Peter Bull had lived to see this museum – it is breathtaking!

5515 Theodore B. Bear

13"/33cm

(fully jointed in Mohair with Yes/No mechanism, desk & phone)

© Beverley Port 1989

Beverley Port

Beverley Matteson Port has world acclaim for her doll and bear designs. She is also an author, photographer, lecturer and historian.

Her famous literary collaborator is Theodore B. Bear, author of columns in countless bear and doll magazines for over 15 years. Little wonder his paw is patched. Bev says it is almost worn out.

Nisbet Costumed Figurines

An Exciting New Concept in Dollmaking

These dolls are dressed on a nude, perfectly proportioned figure standing on a conventional figurine base. The figure is cast in English fine bone china and then delicately painted by Coalport® in Stoke on Trent, the home of the British Pottery Industry. Victorian period costuming, needlework and dressing are by House of Nisbet in Weston-super-Mare.
